

3765 Motor Ave, Suite 1121 · Los Angeles, California 90034, U.S.A. · (310) 558-3611
Randy Reynaldo, Publisher

June 10, 1992
for immediate release

PRESS RELEASE

New Rob Hanes Stories to Debut

WCG Comics has announced that beginning with Adventure Strip Digest #3 (due in July), new stories starring Rob Hanes will appear in the title. In addition, a publishing schedule of at least three-times-a-year has been established for the series.

The focus of Adventure Strip Digest was initially on older, never-before-seen Rob Hanes material. As a result, stories as old as three years have been published in the series. Because of the positive response from the small press, however, Rob Hanes creator Randy Reynaldo has decided to release new stories in the digest while they are still fresh. The older material will be continued to be used as filler when needed.

Adventure Strip Digest #3 will feature a brand new full-length Rob Hanes story entitled "The Princess," which was previewed in Adventure Strip Digest #1. In the story, Rob is kidnapped by a real-life princess working for Middle East terrorists.

Furthermore, in line with his desire to move the character to a different locale more often, writer/artist Reynaldo says that "The Princess" will be the last Rob Hanes adventure to take place in the Middle East for quite some time. The next story, currently in progress, will take Rob to post-Soviet Russia.

Orders for Adventure Strip Digest #3 are now being accepted. The 40-page black-and-white digest with cardstock cover is available for $2 postpaid from Randy Reynaldo, 3765 Motor Avenue, Suite 1121, Los Angeles, CA 90034. Subscriptions for $6 a year (three issues) are also available.