New Audio-Cassette "Radio Show" Takes Humorous Look at Comics Fandom

WCG Comics publisher Randy Reynaldo announced the release of a new audio-cassette adventure-comedy starring Rob Hanes, the globe-trotting private investigator from the pages of the popular small press comic, Adventure Strip Digest.

In the 26-minute show, private investigator Rob Hanes is introduced to the lurid world of comics fandom when he is hired by fanboy extraordinaire Johnson McFeeley to protect a comic-book collection that is being destroyed by a mysterious figure known only as "The Swede"! Along the way, he encounters intrigue, danger and, of course, a beautiful femme fatale.

Professionally recorded, mixed, engineered, and dubbed with music and sound effects, the cassette tape comes with a bonus 12-page mini-comic/program and is presented as an old-time radio show, complete with commercials for "Adventure Beer," the show's "sponsor."

"Three Days of the Fanboy" was executive produced by WCG publisher and Rob Hanes creator Randy Reynaldo, written and directed by Bob Westal, and features the vocal talents of the WCG Mystery Theatre Players, who are Scott Brick, Terry Delegeane and David Gordy.

Randy Reynaldo appears as himself.

Additional copies of the tape are available for $5 plus $1 postage and handling from WCG Comics, 3765 Motor Avenue, Suite 1121, Los Angeles, CA 90034. Please make checks payable to "Randy Reynaldo."
